

Please-no further media consolidation.

There are several bulwarks that I believe make our country great. They are; separation of church and state, one unifying language and a free press. To have a free press, we need a multi-ownership press. With consolidation of the media we lose the ability to see, hear and evaluate other viewpoints. Your vote to support a multi-ownership media is appreciated.

Sincerely, Peter H. Hoch